Remuneration policy
Remuneration policy for the statutory board, for the members of the policy-making body and for staff (e.g. collective labour agreement or salary scheme).

Article 5.2 of the Articles of Association states the following: "Except as provided below no part of the income and property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of benefit to the members of the Charity and no Trustee may receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Charity." Staff salaries are reviewed once a year with any inflationary increase and the total salary cost being approved by The Elders' Executive Committee. Any individual salary increases for the senior team, including the CEO, need to be specifically approved by the same committee, other increases are approved by the senior team within the total approved salary cost.

Activity Report
List the activities that have been carried out. Alternatively, under the next question, enter the URL to the activity report, or to the financial statements if they clearly describe the activities of the financial year in question.
